

About DVC: Diablo Valley College is one of three publicly supported two-year community colleges in the Contra Costa Community College District. The main campus is located off Interstate 680 in Pleasant Hill, California and twenty miles east of UC Berkeley.

DVC also has a center in downtown Walnut Creek.

How to Apply: Before you can take a class at DVC, you must be “enrolled” in the college. Completing an Admission Application is the first step in the enrollment process.

Applications are available online as well as at the Admissions and Records Office.

DIABLO VALLEY COLLEGE

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Diablo Valley College is a great place to start your college career out of high school! We are one of the top "transfer institutions" in California, serving as a stepping stone for students whose ultimate destination is the University of California, or California State.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Diablo Valley College will also offer educational opportunities for international students, who otherwise may not have such opportunities available to them in their home countries.

ADULT STUDENTS

Diablo Valley College also offers exceptional educational opportunities to adult students. If you plan to pursue your degree or transfer goals, expand or update your job skills, or enjoy personal growth and enrichment, DVC has the right program for you!
