

Line Weight

Line weight gives a sense of depth. The lighter an object is drawn the further away it is. The top drawing is of various objects put together in a certain composition. The top right picture is one point perspective. the bottom right is line weight also done in perspective.

