

T o n e

These are to show something with shadow and depth. The top is of a tree with two details of the tree blown up. The top right is of a tarp draped over a table. The bottom right is of various objects placed in a corner. One must convey the tone and shadowing so one knows where the light is coming from.

